

HUNDREDS PAY A FINAL TRIBUTE TO
HENRY P. SNYDER

Impressive Funeral Services are Held for Editor of The Courier.

ENTIRE REGION REPRESENTED

Newspaper Men, Coal and Coke Operators, Railroad Officials, Members of the Bench and Bar, and Leading Citizens of Community are Present.

Connellsville, Fayette county and the coke region paid its final tribute to the memory of Henry Provance Snyder, editor and publisher of The Courier, when the funeral was held at 2:30 yesterday afternoon from Trinity Lutheran Church. Hundreds attended the services, and among them were people in all walks of life. Added to these from this immediate community came leaders in journalism, industry, law and politics of the coke region. The church was crowded.

Only the services were public. At their conclusion the body was taken to Hill Grove cemetery, where it was buried in the family lot, in the presence of only the immediate family.
Scores of floral tributes were brought to the church. There was a profusion of roses, lilies, chrysanthemums, orchids and other beautiful flowers; some in baskets, others in wreaths, and still more in clusters and bouquets.

The service was simple but impressive. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Ellis B. Burgess, pastor of Trinity Church, assisted by Rev. Wilbur Nelson of the Baptist Church, and Rev. J. L. Prodd of the First Presbyterian Church. Miss Mary Ann Waters was the soloist with Miss Pearl Koch at the organ. A choir composed of Miss Eaton, Mrs. F. C. Goebert, John Davis and R. O. Chabough, also sang.

Rev. Burgess spoke briefly, reviewing the achievements of Henry Provance Snyder during his brief existence as a newspaper man and as one who labored constantly for the upbuilding of a community. He paid a particularly touching tribute to Mr.
Snyder's ideal home life. Mr. Snyder, he pointed out, was truly a son of Connellsville and a true friend of the pioneers of Western Pennsylvania.

The honorary pallbearers were close personal friends of Mr. Snyder.
They were: Colonel J. M. Reid, J. C.
Johns, W. T. Norton, L. F. Ruth, Rockwell Marietta, Charles Davidson, Edward Williams, E. Crow, K. W. Playford, Judge E. H. Reppert, F. P. Truesdale, John Lynch, Colonel J. T. Steen and Jas. M. Hosack. The active pallbearers, employees of The Courier, were John L. Gans, James J. Driscoll, George S. Connel, Charles B. Dyer, Edward H. Gans, Robert W. Lindberger, Elmer L. McNitt and A. C.
Forbert.

Employees of The Courier attended the funeral in a body. Assembling at the office, they marched in a body to the church, where they stood together for a sentimental feature of the funeral.
A sentimentality feature of the funeral was the fact that almost every man who had ever been in the employ of The Courier was present, unless prevented from attending by distance or some serious cause. It was an evidence of the friendly relations between employer and employee. It was evident that for what cause an employee have left Editor Snyder's service, he never lost either admiration or respect for him.

Among the newspapermen who attended the funeral were: John C.
Robert W. Herberich, editor of The Greensburg Tribune; Joseph Thompson, editor of The Connellsville News; A. F. Cooper, president of the Fayette Publishing Company; William H. Cooke, former editor of the Uniontown Standard; John S.
Johnson, former editor of the Uniontown Evening Sentinel; Major James L. Laird, former editor of The Greenburg Argus; and Colley S. Baker, of the Uniontown Morning Herald.

Among the persons from Uniontown who attended the funeral were:
Judge J. Q. Van Antwerp, Judge H. Reppert, Judge J. C. Waters, herbert Thomas, L. Howard, Deputy sheriff Charles O. Schroyer, Owen McGowan, William Wilson, County commissioners Charles H. Nutt and Oscar Riehl, Controller Harry Klinger, Deputy Controller Earl Hinton, Recorder of Deeds H. C. Hays, Deputy Recorder Lloyd Clark, Deputy Register of Wills J. Benton Crow, Treasurer George Orval Riehl, Deputy Treasurer Ewing Townsend, Deputy Proprietary Robert W. Wright, Charles F. Fee, Martin G. Hess, E. C. McCollough, Edward C. Roberts, John L. Williams, McClelland, Charles P.
Blick, Clerk of Courts Richard Davis, Deputy Clerk of Courts D. W. Smiley, D. Christ, D. W. McDonald, Robert F. Sample, S. E. Brock, James R. ray, W. J. Sturges, C. E. Lenhart, W. S. Benson, Alex. McBeth, Mart Kiefer, G. S. Harrah, H. P. Kennedy, de Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hagan, Mrs. Collins, Martin Murphy.
Other well known men who attended the funeral included Congressman F. Hopwood; W. A. Todd, J. A.
Arbhart and James A. Atchison, of H. C. Flick, George C. Hays, J. C.
Remann and R. M. Fry, of the Produce Coke Company; General Manage J. H. Yoke, Chief Engineer E. W.
Jota and Assistant Superintendent J.
Yoke, Jr., of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, who came to Connellville in a special train; W. L. Wood of Jefferson township; W. H. Busch of Fayette City; H. F. McKee, of American Type Founders Company, Pittsburg; James B. Reed, Pittsburg.

WESTMORELAND REPRESENTED.
Colonel Robert W. Herberich of The Greensburg Tribune, was here yesterday attending the funeral of Mr.
Snyder. Colonel Herberich was one of the 17 commissioners appointed by the state to go to Mexico to supervise the voting among the soldiers, and unless there should be a recall of the troops to which he was assigned, expects to leave Greensburg this evening to take up his duties. The state furnished the ballots and Colonel Her-berich will organize a certain number of election boards, will receive their returns, telegraph them to Harrisburg and follow this with the regular election statements.

Major James M. Laird, one of the editors of the newspaper game in Westmoreland county, was here from Greensburg for the funeral.
Albert L. Porter, for many years the Scottsdale correspondent for The Courier, and who is now a clerk in the county commissioners' office of Westmoreland county, was another of those who paid their last respects to the memory of the Old Master yesterday.

PASSED TEST TOGETHER.

Attorney R. P. Kennedy of Uniontown, who attended H. P. Snyder's funeral yesterday, recalled that in 1878 Mr. Snyder, Frank M. Puller, former Secretary of the Commonwealth, Justice S. Leslie Mestrezat of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, passed the preliminary law examination together. Mr. Kennedy and Justice Mestrezat are the only two who now survive. The justice expressed great regret that he could not attend the funeral, but the absence of several members of the court made it impossible for him to leave Philadelphia.

PROBE INTO CAR SHORTAGE MADE

Efforts are Directed Towards Releasing Situation Which is Badly Crippling Coal Trade.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 31.—The State Public Utilities committee today sent telegrams to officials of all railroads in Ohio ordering them to file with the commission not later than Thursday a statement showing the number of cars loaded or in transit or at stations along their lines on October 31 and showing the number of days' detention because of demurrage.

The committee was taken by the commission as part of its investigation of the alleged coal car shortage situation in Ohio with relation to the high cost of coal.

Ohio railroad officials said today they believe the brokers or middlemen are in part responsible for the car shortage and subsequent high prices, because they are not unloading the cars, but holding the coal for speculative purposes. M. S. Connors, general manager of the Hocking Valley railroad, a coal carrying road, said many of the cars needed for the Ohio and West Virginia mines are being held up outside the state.

One large coal company, with headquarters here, received word today that one of its West Virginia mines was without cars today and had to close down. Only one of the company's four mines in Meigs and Jackson counties, Ohio, is operating because of lack of cars.

"We can't get our mine cars which we ordered last January," said the managers of that company.

HUNTINGDON, W. Va., Oct. 31.— While officials of railroads which do the coal-carrying business say the general demand for cars is being satisfactorily met, operators having properties in Southern West Virginia and Eastern Kentucky declare that the production of their fields has been cut in some cases from 40 to 60 per cent because of their inability to get ample transportation facilities.

Schedule Reversed.

Pupils and teachers who are on half time because of the congestion in the schools changed schedule yesterday, those who have been attending in the morning taking the afternoon session and vice versa.

SCOTSDALE MAN GETS $500*AND CARNEGIE HERO MEDAL*FOR SAVING MAN IN FLOOD

The Carnegie Hero Fund commission has awarded $500 and a bronze medal to Arthur Trimble, son of Murray Trimble of Bridge street, Scottdale, for saving the life of Michael Banaszewicz at the risk of his own dying in the Swedtown flood, March 21, 1912. Arthur Trimble is now employed in Pittsburg.

In March, 1912, there was a particularly heavy rain and the creek back of the mill at Scottdale overflowed its banks, flooding most of the houses at Swedtown. Trimble, with some other Scottdale men, went to Swedtown to see the results of the flood. He saw Banaszewicz come out of a house in a small boat. The boat overturned and its occupant went under. Trimble and the other men seized ladders and the pole was very much pained. Notwithstanding this Trimble plunged in and brought Banaszewicz safely to shore. As a token of his gratitude, Banaszewicz presented his rescuer with an antique Polish

THIRD WARD WILL GET NEW POLLING PLACE THIS YEAR

Once More Will Voters Ballot in a Different Location.

THE CHANGES HAVE BEEN MANY

There Has Been More Shifting of a Polling Place, Officials Say, Than in Any Other Local District; Polling Asks That Sins' Office be Used.

Connellsville voters will cast their ballots for President next Tuesday at the same polling place, except in the Third ward. A petition was circulated yesterday by C. H. Bishop, superior inspector for the Third ward, asking that the court designate the rear of J. E. Sims' undertaking parlors as the polling place. "This will probably be done some time before election day and it is likely that the voters will cast their ballots there for many years."

While most of the other wards seldom change the polling places, the Third has done more shifting than any of the others in late years. The old skating rink, the Adams warehouse and the storehouse next to Miller's store have all been utilized. The election officers say that the new polling place will be the best they have ever had, in point of location and convenience. It was first used this year by the registrars.

The First Ward board will sit in the office at the rear of the Smith house, the Second in Dull's garage, the Fourth in Adamson W. D. Cobern's office, the Fifth in Darr's milk depot, the Sixth in the schoolroom off Sixth street, and the Seventh at the West Side fire station.

The polls will be open from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M. The election boards expect to work well into the morning hours to compute the vote.

THREE ESCAPE.

They Take French Leave From the City Chain Gang.

Three prisoners escaped from the chain gang yesterday, while it was working at cleaning streets. They went not all together, but one at a time. First, John Heston laid down his little broom and departed. Another member of the force dropped his shovel while Street Commissioner Mc-Cormick and his assistants were not looking and took French leave. Still another escaped later in the day.
No policeman is assigned to look after the chain gang at present.

COMISKY IS FREED.

Does Not Go to Jail and May Enter a Sanatorium.

"Dick" Comisky, a familiar figure in police circles, was released by the police this morning when his sister came to take charge of him. Comisky was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail Sunday morning, after he had been arrested for fighting, but was never taken to Uniontown.
Comisky is very ill. Chief Rottler, therefore, thought it a good plan to release the man when his sister agreed to take care of him. Comisky will probably be sent to a sanatorium.

New Kensington Saturday.
New Kensington will play Connellsville high school at Fayette field on Saturday afternoon. The Westmoreland county boys come with a reputation behind them, having defeated Tarentum 20 to 0 last Saturday and vanquished other strong teams in the Pittsburg district.

Granted a Divorce.
A divorce was granted yesterday to Ethel M. Kelley of Victoria, near Pittsburg, from Oscar C. Kelley on grounds of desertion.

British Casualties Heavy.
LONDON, Oct. 31.—British casualties reported in October in all war areas are: Officers, 4,331; men, 102,702.

CAR IS STOLEN.

Wild West Show Reports Theft of an Automobile.

Another automobile theft has been reported to the police. This time the manager of the Wild West show, now playing on the West Side, said grounds, are the losers.

An employee at the grounds is suspected of having stolen the car. Chief Rottler is working on the case.

Undergoes an Operation.

Ernest Bishop underwent an operation this morning at the South Side Private Hospital. George Blair of the West Side, who underwent an operation yesterday is getting along very nicely.

MILLION ENROLL AS REPUBLICANS

Returns From All Over Pennsylvania Give Leaders Cause for Deep Gratification.

Special to The Courier.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31.—Nearly a million Pennsylvanians are enrolled for next week as Republicans, the exact number being 962,143, according to the figures of the Pennsylvania figures by Chairman William E.
Crow of the state committee. This is a gain of 230,968 over 1914. The Democratic enrollment is 416,111, an increase of 14,494 over the 1914 figures.
Chairman Crow and the Republican party are deeply gratified over the figures since they show the enrollment of 889,083 more Republicans than voted for President Taft in 1912. The Washington party enrollment dropped to 207,444, indicating a very general "back to the party" movement among the Progressives. The Democratic Presidential ticket in 1912 polled 396, 637 votes in Pennsylvania, and today's figures show that only 26,774 more persons have enrolled as Democrats than voted for Wilson and Marshall at the last presidential election. An interesting feature of the table is that the non-enrolled voters number 201, 257, or almost one-half the Democratic enrollment.

A study of the table shows that the total Republican enrollment is 481, 982 greater than the combined enrollment of all other political parties, and 80,768 greater than the total for the other parties added to those who did not give their party preference.

HURT IN BUTE MINE.
William Parkhill Badly Injured But Will Likely Recover.

William Parkhill of Butte is in the Uniontown Hospital for treatment of injuries suffered yesterday morning in the mine at Butte where he was working with the machine gang. In an unconscious condition the injured man was removed from the mines and taken to the hospital. This morning he had regained consciousness, and hopes for his recovery were entertained.

His brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jaynes of East Pittsburg, arrived here this morning. Mr.
Parkhill is a brother of Mrs. F. R.
Yoder of Greensburg.

THROWN FROM AUTO.

Oblique Man Have Narrow Escape
When Ford Overturns on Pike.

W. E. Holt and Robert Holt of Chio-pyle were thrown from a Ford touring car when it skidded on the National Pike about 6 o'clock last evening. The former suffered a broken left arm but his brother escaped without injuries. W. E. Holt was serving on the jury at Uniontown and was on his way home when the accident occurred.

The machine was righted with the assistance of two other motorists and the Holts returned to Uniontown where W. E. Holt's injuries were dressed.

LOTS OF MONEY.

Police Department Promises to be Self-Supporting.

Chief of Police B. Rottler said this morning that if arrests were made at the present rate during the remainder of the year, the police department of this city would be practically self-supporting for 1916. So much money is received from fines, he said, that nearly the entire amount of salaries and expenses can be paid direct from the receipts of police court.

Receipts from fines during the month of October are expected to run considerably over $400.

EXTRA CAR SERVICE.

West Penn Express to Carry Many People to Scottdale Tonight.

To accommodate the crowds of local mummers who plan to participate in the Scottdale Halloween celebration tonight the West Penn will run triple trains at 7 and 9:30 p. m. There will be double header service on all other runs between Connellsville and Mount Pleasant.

Scores of Connellsville folks participated in the big time at Mount Pleasant last night.

Vanderbilt also celebrates its Halloween tonight.

PAY IN ADVANCE.

Teachers Will Have No Long Waits Between Visits of Paymaster.

Connellsville teachers will not have to wait seven weeks for their second month's pay as seemed probable when they were paid for the first month of school a week after the term opened on October 2. This school board has decided to pay in advance and the instructors will have no long intervals between checks.

Checks for the second month's salary will be given out on Friday.

Leaves Hospital.

Mrs. Sadie Reid of the West Side

Weather Forecast

Partly cloudy tonight; Wednesday fair, is the noon weather forecast for Western Pennsylvania.

Temperature Record

The Young river dropped from 1.85 to 1.30 feet during the night.

ARCH STREET WILL BE WIDENED IF THE CITY GETS GROUND

Councilmen Contemplate Asking B. & O. for an Exchange.

MAY GIVE PART OF WATER ST.

City Officials Anticipate Heavy Travel Over Arch Street When Paying is Done and Are Anxious to Widen It to 40 Feet in Downtown Section.

The city will ask the Baltimore & Ohio railroad for enough ground between Fairview avenue and Gallatin alley to make possible the widening of Arch street to at least 40 feet. This was decided upon last night at an informal meeting by councilmen. The understanding being that the railroad will ultimately come before council and ask the vacation of part of Water street, south of the Yough bridge, for a new freight station site and other improvements. Engineer Faust was authorized to submit the proposition to the railroad management.

No formal action was taken as there have been no negotiations of an official nature between the railroad and city.
The widening of Arch street would be a big improvement, while the closing of part of Water street would work no hardship on anyone. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad owns considerable property along Water street, this having been acquired with the idea of ultimately constructing a new freight station there.

The special session of council last night lasted but 10 minutes and practically no business was transacted.
The session was called to award the contract to pave First street, West Side, but the city engineer had been unable to compile his estimates for the bidders, consequently it was not possible to let the job. He was directed to make it a 24 foot street throughout.

The ordinance remaining Main street Crawford avenue did not come up for final passage. In introducing the measure council did not serve notice that it was considered urgent and thus made possible its passage after three days, consequently 10 days must elapse before the ordinance can be enacted. It will be voted on finally at the next regular meeting on November 13.

The matter of where to house the fire apparatus during the winter was not discussed.

All members were present except Councilman J. H. Guyan.

TWO GO TO JAIL.

Mayor Harbetta handed out two 30-day jail sentences to police court this morning. Sam Dubak got the first one.

Sam, who was at the Cottage State Hospital for some time after he fell on Peach street and suffered an injury to his head, showed worse behavior than ever when he recovered from the hurt. He was arrested by Chief Rottler on North Pittsburg street yesterday morning and charged with drunkenness.

Mike Walters is the other unfortunate who will sojourn at the county jail for a month. Mike, who said he had no home, was charged with being suspicious. He was standing in front of the city hall, "using bad language" and "trying to raise trouble" at the time of his arrest, according to the report of Patrolman Barnes, who locked him up.

Hundred Persons Hurt.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 31.—At least 100 persons were injured at Bunday, a suburb, early today when two street cars were telescoped in a head-on collision.

ment was made here today that the

had been sold to the American Chain Company of Bridgeport, Conn.

30,000 tons of finished product annually. The general offices will be moved from Pittsburg to New York.

REPUBLICAN CREDITED AS*WILSON MAN SPIKES CLAIM*OF DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER

Some days ago the Connellsville News, with great glee, announced that C. S. Sautz, a former resident of Connellsville and a staunch Republican, was going to Wilson. The Democrats have been quite busy this year inventing names of Republicans who are going to vote for Wilson. Just how strong Mr. Sautz is for Wilson may be seen from the following letter which The Courier has received from him:

"I have just had quite a surprise by a recent issue of the Connellsville News, stating that a 'former stalwart Republican was out for Woodrow Wilson for President.' The only authority that I can imagine for the News printing such an item lies in the fact that reporter saw me purchase a copy of the Pittsburg Post on boarding a train in Connellsville."

"The horrible war must be brought to an end during the term of our next President, and because of the high cost of living, the workmen in our

HUGHES REPLIES TO SHADOW LAWN

Refers to the Saturday Meeting There as a Festival of Self-Glorification.

Special to The Courier.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Charles E. Hughes last night replied to President Wilson's speech at Shadow Lawn, last Saturday. Mr. Hughes referred to the occasion as "a little festival of self-glorification," among "our opponents," in which "they celebrated the birth of freedom, and described themselves as the generous forces of the age and world."

"The eulogy needed one further touch," Mr. Hughes declared, "and that was to celebrate the policy that led to the slaughter at Vera Cruz and Carrizal."

The Underwood and Adams' bills were characterized as being in the "whimsical domain of topey-turvy-dom."

Business had been placed, as it was claimed, on a different footing. Mr.
Hughes said.

"And it is a very slippery footing," he added.

Mr. Hughes declared his opponents were "a little out of their reckoning," in claiming that "business had been relieved of a nervous fear of the courts," that "what business really feared was 'vague legislation,' 'two-faced laws,' 'government by hold-up,' and 'an administration which treats business men as suspicious characters.'"

LAST "WET" DAY

Virginia Joins the Dry Column of States at Midnight.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 31.—This was the last day on which intoxicating beverages may be sold legally in Virginia. At midnight tonight the new prohibition law goes into effect and about 800 saloons in the state will have closed their doors for the last time. Many had closed today because their stocks had been exhausted.

Reports from all parts of the state today told of large quantities of liquor being stored away in the homes of citizens in anticipation of a dry state.
In this city thousands of gallons are said to have been delivered to private homes.

The law stipulates that a person may order from another state, but one quart of whiskey per month, three gallons of beer or one gallon of wine.
This right remains to be tested in the court.

SIX BIG RALLIES

Republicans Will Hold Meetings All Over the County.

It was arranged last night that six Republican meetings should be held this week in Fayette county. Tomorrow evening there will be rallies at Mount Braddock and at the North Union township high school building.
Sun Jinnand and Oliver No. 1 will be hosts to the Republican speakers on Thursday evening. On Saturday evening there will be two more meetings, one at Point Marion, the other at Arnot City.

On Friday night, it is very likely, a rally will be held in Brownsville under the auspices of the Young Men's Republican Club of Brownsville.

It is probable that the candidates for assembly will make an automobile trip across the mountains on Saturday. Such a trip was taken two years ago and it is believed that it did much good.

Mother Praises Remedy That Relieved Her Baby

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Is a Dependable Family Laxative.

Nearly all the sickness incident to a baby's life is due to constipation, or laxation of the bowels. At the first indication of irregularity in this important function relief should be afforded promptly. A mild laxative should be administered to gently carry off the congested waste and leave the stomach and bowels free to perform their allotted tasks.

Of the various remedies recommended to relieve constipation, the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, as prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell and sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is the most effective. It contains no opiate or narcotic drug, is pleasant to the taste, mild and gentle in action, and quickly brings the desired relief in an easy, natural manner.

Mrs. C. J. Douglas, Mason, Ill., writes that she cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as a dependable family laxative. Little Mary Eva had been badly constipated until they tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which brought the first natural relief the child had had in two weeks.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores everywhere and costs only fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 356 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

MORE RHEUMATISM THAN EVER BEFORE

Clergyman, Lawyers, Brokers, Mechanics and Merchants Stricken.

Our old friend Rheumatism is having his finest year, and a few words of caution from one who knows all about it may not be amiss.

Wear rubbers in damp weather; keep your feet dry; drink plenty of lemonade, and avoid strong alcoholic drinks.

If rheumatism gets you, or sore throat, and you have sharp twinges, grinding pain or swollen joints or muscles, you can get rid of all agony in just a few days by taking one-half teaspoonful of Senreco once a day.

All druggists know about Rheumatism; it's harmless, yet powerful; cheap, yet sure, and a 50-cent bottle will last a long time. Ask A. A. Clarke or any druggist.—Adv.

FRAIL, SICKLY CHILD

Father Tells How Boy was Restored to Health and Strength.

We have always told the people of Conneltsville that Vinol is a wonderful body builder for ailing children. Here is more proof of the fact.

J. L. Albury of Miami, Pa., says:

"Our little boy was puny and cross from the time he was born, and we hardly knew how to handle him. When he was three years old he was weak and so cross we could hardly live with him and we could not get him to eat anything. A friend asked us to try Vinol. We did so and you should see the change it has made in him. He is now a good-natured, healthy youngster, ready to eat at any time, and we cannot praise Vinol enough."

Vinol is especially efficient in building up puny, weak, ailing children, because of the beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphate which it contains, and is it without oil or grease, children love to take it.

Do women realize that they already vote in the most effective way on important questions.

Every time a woman buys an article it is a vote backed by money, for that article, a sincere approval of its merits.

HIS FRIEND HURT; HE HELPED HIM

Injured Man Laughed When Simple Treatment Was Suggested, but He

Thanked His Comrade

Later.

Once upon a time word came to Henry A. Voehl, of Plainfield, N. J., that a close friend had been injured, and full of anxiety to visit the afflicted man, who was suffering from a sprained ankle.

"It was so bad that the leg had turned black," said Mr. Voehl in relating the story. "I told him I would have him out in a week and he laughed at me. But I took him a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, that night he put some on and noticed the ankle felt better. I told him to use it every day, and in three weeks his ankle was practically well. In four days he was working. He gladly admits that Sloan's Liniment 'put him on his feet.'"

Sloan's Liniment can be obtained at all drug stores, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

The Quarterbreed

BY ROBERT
AMES
BENNETT

OF BROWNE & BROWNE CO.

"Of course! But he—I did not think him so mean!" The girl's eyes blazed and her nostrils dilated. "So that was why he was shot? I don't blame the man who did it—I could have done it myself! The thief!—Reggie, if only you had let the killer escape!"

"Couldn't," tersely replied Vandervyn. "He was blood-mad—would have got Charlie and me, too, if we hadn't got him!"

"That was self-defense," said Hardy. "It has been good and diplomatic, though, that have prompted you to conceal from me the facts that led up to the killing. Aside from the danger to me, you have permitted the tribe to rove upon an uprising that would have compelled their pacification by the war department. All this that you might steal the ore of this mine."

"Steal our own ore?" bellowed Dupont. "You're plumb locoed!"

"Not so loud, if you please," quietly replied Hardy. "The ore is not yours."

"That's all you know about it," blustered the trader. "Ain't I one of the discoverers and locators of the lode?"

"The lode is not subject to location. It is an Indian land."

"What if it is? Ain't I a member of the tribe?"

"The Indian land has not yet been allotted in severalty. Every square foot of ground on the reservation belongs to the tribe as a whole. No one member can hold individual title to any of it."

"Well, what of it?" demanded Dupont, far from abashed. "If the tribe wants to work the mine, and they want me and Mr. Van to manage it for them and buy the ore, what in hell have you got to say about it?"

"Nothing at present," answered Hardy. "If the tribe consents, I shall make no objection. You can be able to cheat them of only a few thousand dollars before the new treaty is consummated and all this mineral land opened to location and entry under the mining laws."

The value on Vandervyn's crimsoned forehead was swollen and pulsating with his furious anger. He spoke in a high, hoarse tone: "So you are going to pull wires to get our mine taken away from us?"

"I shall see that justice is done toward the tribe," said Hardy, and he fixed the younger man with a glance that compelled him to blink and look aside.

But now Marie's swift-mounting scorn and anger burst out in a storm of passion:

"You hypocrite! You self-righteous martinet! You would reprimand my father and Mr. Van, would you? And each a thousand times better man than you! Who has made all the trouble here since you came? This whole tribe hates you—and I'm one of the tribe! You straight-laced prig! You say peace and Reggie are dishonest, when all they wish to do is to give the tribe good work and good pay. But you want to take away the mine from the tribe and from us too!"

Hardy glanced under the scornful reproaches, yet did not yield a hair. "I have done my duty, Miss Dupont. I shall continue to do it. I have no intention of robbing anyone of what is rightfully his."

"Yet when the reservation is thrown open for entry, someone else who never saw the mine they slip in ahead of us and jump it," said Vandervyn. "That is something I cannot prevent," said Hardy.

"You can!" contradicted Marie. "The chiefs will not insist on the new treaty—they will do what Pore thinks best for them and us, if you leave the matter to him and Reggie."

"I must do my duty as acting agent," insisted Hardy.

The girl turned her back upon him in open disdain. He raised his hat to her and started for the cabin, his face white, but his shoulders squared back and his head very erect.

CHAPTER XIII.

Another Card or Two.

A few minutes later Hardy came out of the cabin. Though grave, he was cool and alert. He at once walked up to Dupont, who sat puffing at his pipe on the top of the mine-dump.

"Heard seems to be quiet," he said. "Where is your daughter?"

Dupont pointed vaguely down the mountain-side. "She went off with Mr. Van, to try to smooth down his fur. You riled him considerably, Cap."

"I regret that it was necessary to reprimand you."

"All right, Cap. I don't bear no grudge. Maybe now you'd like to take a look at the mine."

"Yes," crisply agreed Hardy. Dupont rose and led him into the mouth of the tunnel. There he un-

HEALTH AGAIN, HAD SUFFERED FOR 10 YEARS

Kinter Relieved of Serious Stomach Trouble, Due to Typhoid Fever.

That Tania is an unusual body invigorant and restorer of the ravages of diseases is indicated by the experience of A. A. Kinter, a switchman on the New York Central Railroad, who resides at 517 Cascade St., Erie, Pa.

Mr. Kinter has had a remarkable restoration to complete health, after ten years of illness. He said:

"I had typhoid fever ten years ago, which left my stomach in very bad condition. I had terribly severe spells periodically, when I could not keep anything I ate on my stomach."

"When I was having these spells, I would be awakened from my sleep by terrible churning spells and it seemed like my chest would burst and my heart would stop. I would be afraid I was going to die before daylight."

"I took all kinds of remedies, but they did me no good."

"Finally, I saw Tania advertised. I bought a bottle. After the first few doses, its effect on me was almost marvellous."

"My stomach trouble began to disappear, my appetite improved, and I was able to eat a big meal and digest it."

"After I had taken three bottles, my health was remarkably improved. Now I can eat whatever I please. I sleep sound as a dollar all night long, and all the bad effects of the typhoid fever are gone."

Tania is now sold in Connelville exclusively by the Connelville Drug Store where the premier preparation can now be had—Adv.

escort drawn up in line before him, their swarthy faces alight with respectful friendliness. Their sergeant uttered a guttural word of salutation, and began making signs.

Hardy smiled, shook his head, and looked around for an interpreter. Dupont still sat sulking on the mine dump, but Marie and Vandervyn were coming back up the mountain-side. They appeared only a few yards away, as Hardy glanced about, his lips drew tense when he perceived the girl's angry blushes and the look with which Vandervyn was regarding her half-averted face.

At sight of Hardy she straightened with proud disdain, and would have immediately gone around into the cabin had he not spoken.

"Pardon me, Miss Dupont. These men wish to report to me. May I ask you to interpret for them?"

The girl turned coldly to the sergeant, who at once poured out an impassioned declamation, emphasized with swift-formed signs. He was still talking, when Dupont suddenly shambled over from the mine-dump. His disconcerted face darkened still more when he came within hearing.

At last the sergeant finished his impromptu oration. Without looking at Hardy, Marie gave the substance of the speech with contemptuous curiosity.

"He says they think you were very brave to follow the shooter into the broken mountain. They are very sorry that they could not again find the trail of the bad Indian after losing it on the bare rocks from which he must have shot Charlie."

"Tell them that is all right. The fellow thought I was the enemy of his tribe. He will soon learn better. Neither he nor any other will again attack me."

"Yes, you have talked Thunderbolt into believing you the tribe's dearest friend," ironically replied Marie. "These silly fellows traded you the chief's camp, and have swallowed whole the account of the wonderful good things you are going to do for the tribe. All this gush and fuss was over that and your big heart."

Regardless of the mockery in the girl's eyes, Hardy turned to smile and nod at the polite acknowledgment of their kindly feelings.

Dupont muttered a curse, and returned an ill-humored remark loud enough to reach Hardy's ears: "The whole bunch'd slag a different tune if I told them how he turned down the chief's camp, gave the tribe half what's in our mine."

"Cluck it, Jake!" interposed Vandervyn, with a good-humored smile that surprised Hardy no less than the trader. "It's up to us to take our medicine. We know it will not be to the best of the tribe. The responsibility, however, is his."

"You ain't going to throw down, are you?" exclaimed Dupont.

"What else can we do?" mildly asked Vandervyn. "The game is up."

"What if the government don't make it no rush, but has the entry-men draw lots?" objected Dupont. "I been fool enough to show Cap through the digging and tell him what we got blocked out. If he ain't square enough to keep his head shut, we won't stand no chance at all of buying out the entryman what draws first choice in the lottery."

"You see, captain," said Vandervyn. "As we discovered and developed the lode, do you not think the honorable thing would be to make no mention of the mine in your report?"

"The tribe should receive a large payment for their mineral lands," replied Hardy.

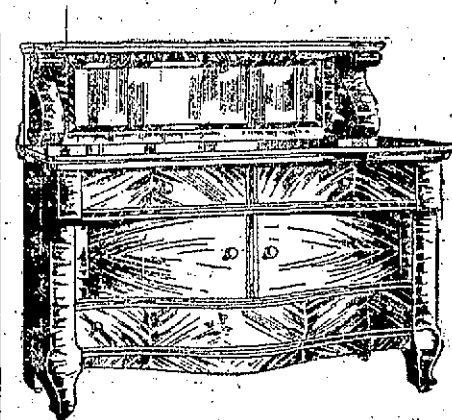

"Quite true," agreed Vandervyn, his voice ringing clear and strong with sincerity. "There was talk of paying them fifteen millions. I think it should be fifteen or twenty. We have found indications of other lodes. I am sure you will see that it would be perfectly honorable to report that fact, but leave out all mention of our mine. That would protect us, and do no harm to the tribe. If you see it that way, I will pull all the wires I can to convince the government that this part of the reservation is rich in minerals. My uncle is chairman of the treaty commission. If his report favors a payment of fifteen or twenty millions to the tribe, congress will appropriate that amount."

Why

so many Repair
Bills

If there's one thing more than another that sours a man against motoring and makes him wish he'd stuck to the horse-and-buggy, it's having to dig down every week or so to pay for some darned thing that has gotten out o' kelter. Correc- t lubrication will help to keep your car out of the repair shop and your hand out of your purse.

Atlantic Polarine is "correct lubrication" for eight out of ten cars. Under certain conditions, one of the other three principal motor oils—Atlantic
"Light," "Medium" or Atlantic "Heavy"—may give better results.

But, in all events, at least one of those four oils is the one best suited to your particular needs. Ask your garageman which

Atlantic Motor Oils are to correct lubrication when Atlantic Gasoline, the accepted standard, is to correct fuel. In either gas or oil, you can't go wrong on "Atlantic."

Drain your crank-case, wash it out with a little Raydlight Oil, put in a fresh supply of pure, honey-clear Atlantic Motor Oil. You'll have fewer bills for repairs and be glad you took the advice of oil experts.

Read up on this subject. We have published a handsome and comprehensive book about lubrication. It's free. Ask your garage for it. If they cannot supply you drop us a postal and the book will be sent you without charge.
